

Wisconsin Public Utility Institute

Scott J. Lauber, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

Scott Lauber was named executive vice president and chief financial officer of WEC Energy Group in April 2016.

In this role, Scott has overall responsibility for the company's strategic and financial planning functions. He also oversees the treasury, accounting, tax, insurance and risk management functions.

Scott joined Wisconsin Energy Corporation in 1990 and held positions of increasing responsibility, including financial manager – distribution operations, and manager – corporate accounting and budgeting. In 2003, he was appointed controller – delivery business. In 2011, he was appointed assistant treasurer. He was appointed vice president and treasurer for Wisconsin Energy and its utility subsidiary, We Energies, in February 2013. He was appointed vice president and treasurer for WEC Energy Group when the company was formed in June 2015. Previously, he was a staff accountant in Arthur Andersen's Milwaukee office.

Scott graduated with honors from the University of Wisconsin – Whitewater and holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting. He also is a certified public accountant.