

Wisconsin Public Utility Institute

Andy Onesti Manitowoc Public Utilities

Andy Onesti is the Power Supply Manager and IT Manager for Manitowoc Public Utilities (MPU). In that role, he is responsible for the planning, crafting, and managing of the power supply portfolio for MPU as well as Great Lakes Utilities. He is also responsible for the planning and operations of the IT infrastructure for MPU and the City of Manitowoc. Andy has over 26 years of experience working for municipal utilities and joint action agencies. He has held various positions throughout his career including Meter Services, Electrical Engineer, IT Manager, Power Supply Manager and General Manager. Andy is a registered engineer in the State of Wisconsin and has been a member of the IEEE for more than 20 years. He holds a BSEE degree and a Masters of Engineering degree from UW-Madison.