

Wisconsin Public Utility Institute

Lucas Vebber, Director of Environmental and Energy Policy, Wisconsin Manufacturers and Commerce

Lucas Vebber joined WMC in 2015 as the Director of Environmental & Energy Policy. Prior to WMC Lucas was the Deputy Chief of Staff and Policy Director for Senate Majority Leader Scott Fitzgerald. He oversaw the Senate Committee on Organization, helped to develop and advance the Senate's legislative agenda for the previous two sessions and played a key role in crafting and passing Right to Work legislation.

Prior to working with Sen. Fitzgerald, Lucas was the Assistant Deputy Secretary at the Department of Financial Institutions. He has worked in various legislative staff roles and on several legislative campaigns.

Lucas has a B.A. in Political Science from Marquette University, a J.D. from the University of St. Thomas in Minneapolis, MN and is a licensed attorney in Wisconsin. He was born and raised in Milwaukee and currently lives there with his wife and daughters.