

Zach Ramirez

Wisconsin Legislative Council

As an attorney with the Wisconsin Legislative Council, Zach serves as the staff attorney for the Wisconsin Assembly Committee on Energy and Utilities and the Senate Committee on Natural Resources and Energy. In this role, he provides legal advice and research services to legislators as they develop and consider legislation.

Prior to joining Legislative Council, Zach was a program evaluation supervisor at the Wisconsin Legislative Audit Bureau, where he supervised a team of analysts to evaluate and recommend improvements to state agency financial management, effectiveness, and compliance with state and federal law.

Zach serves on the board of the Public Utilities Section of the Wisconsin State Bar and the Legislative Practice Committee of the national Energy Bar Association. He earned his bachelor's degree in Economics from Washington University in St. Louis, his master's degree in Public Administration from the University of Kansas, and his law degree, cum laude, from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
