

CHARLES MIESSNER

Arizona Public Service Company

Charles Miessner has over 30 years' experience in the electric utility industry in the areas of pricing, planning, and business development for both utilities and private energy companies. He is currently an advisor on rates and cost of service matters for Arizona Public Service Company and has appeared before regulators and legislators on energy issues in Arizona, California, Nevada and New Mexico.