

COREY SINGLETARY

Citizens Utility Board of Wisconsin

Corey Singletary currently serves as the in-house utility analyst for the Citizens Utility Board of Wisconsin, a position he has held since July 2017. CUB is an independent, non-profit organization that serves as the state of Wisconsin's residential and small business consumer advocate on utility issues. From May 2010 through June 2017, Corey was employed by the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin as an energy policy advisor and utility rate analyst. During his time with the PSCW, his work focused on electric and natural gas utility rate design and cost-of-service, as well as a number of policy issues such as smart grid technology, innovative rate design, rate-based energy efficiency, conservation, and demand response programs, and distributed energy resources. Corey holds a Bachelor of Science degree in biology and a Bachelor of Arts degree in international studies from the University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee. He also holds a Master's Degree in international public affairs and a Graduate Certificate in energy analysis and policy from the University of Wisconsin–Madison.
