

KATE CHRISTENSEN

Public Service Commission of Wisconsin

Kate Christensen joined the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin in 2014 as a policy and rate analyst. She is responsible for overseeing the work of the gas supply team, working on rate case proceedings, cost-of-service studies, and tariff filings. In addition, she leads special projects and investigations. She is also a valued member of the NARUC staff subcommittee on Gas and is fast becoming a recognized expert in the field of gas acquisition and pricing. Kate holds a Bachelor of Science degree in environmental science from Alverno College and has completed post-graduate courses in mathematics at Madison Area Technical College and courses in planning and management at Johns Hopkins University.
