

Wisconsin Public Utility Institute

JOSH ARNOLD

Navigant

Josh Arnold is an associate director in Navigant's Energy Practice based in Verona, Wisconsin. Josh brings over 15 years of diverse experience in the energy field, including energy efficiency program evaluation and distributed energy research projects throughout North America, Asia and Europe. He is part of the team advising the City of Madison on its goals to achieve 100% renewable energy and zero net carbon emissions. Prior to joining Navigant, Josh implemented energy efficiency programs for the Wisconsin Focus on Energy program. Josh is a member of the Association of Energy Services Professionals (AESP) Wisconsin Chapter and the Wisconsin Chapter of the U.S. Green Building Council. Josh holds a JD from Lewis & Clark Law School, an MBA from Portland State University and a BA from Tufts University.