

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

Benefits for all Members

- Participate in public policy forums with regulators and other government officials, public interest groups, professional advisors, utilities, competitors, and the general public
- Have a direct voice in WPUI programming. Members are important resources in developing programming. Members may suggest topics, help develop the content of programs chosen by the WPUI board Program Advisory Committee, assist in finding and selecting speakers and panelists, and sponsor programs
- Request programming which uses the Chatham House Rule. These members-only programs allow for the discussion of issues in a “no attribution” format
- Enjoy reduced registration fees for WPUI programs
- Receive all electronic mailings regarding WPUI events, seminars, and programs
- Connect to UW-Madison researchers through WPUI’s relationships
- Be recognized in WPUI printed materials and on the WPUI website
- Receive invitations to members-only events
