TANYA PASLAWSKI

Michigan Electric and Gas Association

Tanya Paslawski is president of the Michigan Electric and Gas Association (MEGA), a trade association representing small-to-mid-sized investor-owned electric and gas utilities. MEGA works with the state legislature, agencies, and industry stakeholders to ensure access to safe, reliable, and affordable electric and gas utility service. During nearly two decades in the energy industry, Tanya has worked in both the public and private sector on behalf of the Michigan Public Service Commission, Direct Energy, ITC Holdings, and the Organization of MISO States. In addition to serving in executive roles, she has held positions working on energy policy issues at the state, regional, and federal levels. She also served in formal business and administrative roles as an advisor to two chief executives. Tanya currently serves on the board of Advancing Women in Energy and as vice president of the Midwest Chapter of the Energy Bar Association. Tanya has a bachelor of arts degree in political science from Oakland University, Rochester, Michigan, and a law degree from Michigan State University College of Law. She is a member of the State Bar of Michigan.
