

Wisconsin Public Utility Institute
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

CARI ANNE RENLUND

Madison Gas and Electric Company

Cari Anne Renlund is vice president and general counsel at Madison Gas and Electric Company (MGE), a community energy company located in Madison, Wisconsin. She is the officer in charge of the legal and risk management, safety and environmental affairs, government affairs, and NERC compliance and generation operations (NERC) divisions. In this role, Cari Anne also leads partnerships with external stakeholders, including a partnership with the City of Madison, to help achieve common energy goals. She serves on the boards for the MGE Foundation, Inc. and Customers First Coalition. Cari Anne is former chair of Go Red for Women-Madison with the American Heart Association and is active in many other community endeavors. Prior to joining MGE, Cari Anne was a shareholder and member of the Executive Committee at DeWitt LLP, a regional law firm with offices in Madison, Milwaukee, and Minneapolis. Her practice focused on safety and environmental compliance and litigation, as well as regulatory and government affairs. Cari Anne also served as the chief legal counsel at the Wisconsin Department of Administration, the highest cabinet agency in Wisconsin, serving then-Governors Jim Doyle and Scott Walker. Cari Anne also served in the United States Department of Justice, Antitrust Division, both Washington DC and Chicago. She is a graduate of University of Wisconsin Law School and of St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wisconsin. She lives in Verona, Wisconsin, with her husband and two sons and is an avid hockey mom and lover of Wisconsin sports.