VALERIE HERRING

Taft Stettinius & Hollister

Valerie (Val) Herring's energy practice focuses primarily on permitting energy infrastructure, ratemaking proceedings, and other regulatory and compliance issues. As part of her general litigation practice, Val has successfully represented clients in a variety of disputes including environmental law, contract, tort, personal injury claims. Val has extensive experience obtaining the federal, state, and local approvals necessary for the construction of high voltage transmission lines and defending those approvals on appeal. She also regularly assists clients in state regulatory ratemaking proceedings. Val is admitted to practice in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Colorado. She currently serves as co-president of the boards of directors for the Loan Repayment Assistance Program of Minnesota and the Courage Kenny Foundation. Val received her B.A. from Luther College and her J.D. from the University of Iowa College of Law.
