

Wisconsin Public Utility Institute
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

CARRIE TEMPLETON

Public Service Commission of Wisconsin

Carrie Templeton was appointed by Commission Chairperson Rebecca Cameron Valcq to be her executive assistant/chief of staff on January 7, 2019. Carrie worked at the Commission for eight years prior to her appointment, first serving as the assistant division administrator for Consumer Affairs and most recently as the assistant division administrator of Rates, Finance and Audit in the Division of Energy Regulation. Carrie also worked in the Wisconsin Governor's office as legislative director and policy advisor. She also was the assistant deputy secretary at the Departments of Corrections, Revenue and Financial Institutions. Prior to her management roles in state agencies, Carrie served as the chief of staff and policy director to the then-minority leader of the Wisconsin State Senate, Jon Erpenbach. She is also a member of the WPUI board of directors. Carrie earned her undergraduate degrees and Master of public administration and policy analysis degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She lives in McFarland with her two sons.