CHRISTOPHER LaROWE

WEC Energy Group

Chris LaRowe has worked in the energy industry for nearly a decade. He currently serves as manager of Wisconsin government affairs for WEC Energy Group, Wisconsin's largest electricity and natural gas provider. Prior to assuming his current position, he was the director of government affairs for Wisconsin Public Service Corporation. Chris came to the utility industry after ten years working for the Wisconsin State Telecommunications Association. He began his career in the state capitol working first as an aide in the state Senate and then as a policy advisor for former Governor Tommy Thompson. Chris is a native of Reedsburg, Wisconsin, and is a 1995 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He and his wife live in Sun Prairie with their two children.
