

Wisconsin Public Utility Institute
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

P.J. DiSTEFANO
Deloitte

P.J. DiStefano is a partner in Deloitte's Milwaukee office specializing in the energy and resources industry. He has over 17 years of experience in public accounting and has served several publicly- and privately-held diversified energy clients. His range of experience includes performing external audits, due diligence projects related to mergers and acquisitions, and initial public offering readiness, as well as advising clients on complex accounting matters. P.J. has also served as a technical resource for Deloitte's central region in the areas of financial instruments, share-based payments, and fair valuation matters. He has extensive experience with Securities and Exchange Commission requirements and has assisted his clients with several public financings. In addition to his role on the board of Wisconsin Public Utility Institute, P.J. also serves on the board of directors for the Milwaukee Public Museum and is a member of the Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He received a degree in business administration/accounting from Marquette University and an MBA from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.