ERIC ROTHSTEIN

Galardi Rothstein Group, LLC

Eric has over 30 years of experience in water, wastewater, and stormwater utility financial and strategic planning. His recent projects include supporting the City of Atlanta Watershed Management Department's capital financing program and as co-author of the report "Developing a New Framework for Household Affordability and Financial Capability Assessment in the Water Sector," which was prepared for the American Water Works Association (AWWA), the National Association of Clean Water Agencies (NACWA), and the Water Environment Federation (WEF). Previously, Eric served on the Michigan Governor's Flint Water Advisory Task Force and as program manager for the establishment of the Great Lakes Water Authority. For the Detroit Water and Sewerage Department, he chaired the Blue Ribbon Panel on Affordability. He was Jefferson County, Alabama's rate consultant and municipal advisor for litigation related to the County's bankruptcy and issuance of $1.7 billion in sewer warrants. He also prepared the City of Atlanta's Financial Capability-Based Schedule Extension Report. For several permittees (Atlanta, Akron, EBMUD, Honolulu, Guam, NEORSD, ST. Louis), Eric provided strategic and financial consulting and negotiation support services on financial capability assessment and low-income affordability issues. He is a member of the USEPA Environmental Finance Advisory Board, an MSRB-registered municipal advisor, and a contributing author of the WEF Financing and Charges for Wastewater Systems and the AWWA Principles of Water Rates, Fees and Related Charges Manual of Practices. He received a BA in economics and history from Ripon College, Ripon, Wisconsin, and an MA in economics from the University of California, Davis.
