

TYLER HUEBHER

Public Service Commission of Wisconsin

Tyler Huebner was appointed by Governor Tony Evers to be a commissioner at the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin (PSCW) starting March 17, 2020. He was appointed to fill out the term of former Commissioner Mike Huebsch and so will serve through March 1, 2021. Prior to joining the PSCW, Tyler had been executive director of RENEW Wisconsin, a statewide renewable energy nonprofit organization, since June of 2013. Previously, Tyler worked at the State of Wisconsin Division of Energy Services, and, before that, at the U.S. Department of Energy's Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy division. For both the State of Wisconsin and the DOE, Tyler worked in the low-income weatherization program helping citizens reduce their energy bills. He started his career as a consultant with ICF International. Tyler earned his master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in the atmosphere and energy program at Stanford University and his bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from the University of Iowa.
