

VANESSA WISHART
Stafford Rosenbaum LLP

Vanessa Wishart is a Partner at Stafford Rosenbaum’s Madison office where her practice focuses on environmental law. Vanessa’s experience includes representation of municipal wastewater treatment facilities on permitting and compliance matters, as well as work with the Municipal Environmental Group – Wastewater Division. Vanessa also works with water utility clients on permitting and administrative proceedings before the Public Service Commission and the Department of Natural Resources and with clients on other environmental regulation, transactional, and compliance concerns. Vanessa received her B.A. from Bowdoin College (Brunswick, Maine) and a master’s and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin.