

REBECCA CAMERON VALCQ Public Service Commission of Wisconsin

Rebecca Cameron Valcq (Becky) was appointed by Governor Tony Evers to serve as a commissioner at the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin (PSCW) for a six-year term on January 7, 2019. Governor Evers also appointed her the PSCW chairperson effective through March 2023. Before accepting her role with the State of Wisconsin, Becky was a partner at Quarles & Brady law firm in the energy, environment, and natural resources practice group. Previously, she was regulatory counsel for Wisconsin Electric Power Company where she advised management on all areas of regulatory law in multiple jurisdictions and compliance matters. As a member of the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC), Becky serves on the water committee and on the select committee on regulatory and industry diversity. She has served on the Midcontinent Independent System Operator (MISO) advisory committee and on the board of directors of the Organization of MISO States (OMS). In 2013, Becky was named a “40 Under 40” by the Milwaukee Business Journal, and in 2019 she received a Girl Scout Leadership G.I.R.L. award. She has served on several non-profit boards of directors, including Centro Legal, Cristo Rey Jesuit High School, Hispanic Professionals of Greater Milwaukee, and the Girl Scouts of Wisconsin Southeast. She was a member of the United Way’s teenage pregnancy prevention committee and of the Marquette University Law School’s diversity committee. Becky earned her undergraduate degree from Drake University and her law degree from Marquette University.
