

JEFF LEVY
Xcel Energy

Jeff Levy joined Xcel Energy in 2020. As vice president of infrastructure and shared services, Jeff is responsible for Xcel's IT infrastructure, network, and corporate application services. He has more than 25 years' experience leading technology organizational advancements across multiple industries. Prior to joining Xcel Energy, Jeff was most recently vice president of IT at Be The Match and held leadership roles at Vista Outdoor and Alliant Techsystems. Jeff graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire with a degree in business administration.