JOEL HAUBRICH

WEC Energy Group

Joel Haubrich is manager of state government relations for WEC Energy Group (WEC), the parent company of We Energies and Wisconsin Public Service, and has been with WEC for 27 years. He advocates for WEC with the state of Wisconsin and its legislature. Before joining WEC, Joel served as the development director for the Milwaukee Community Service Corps (MCSC), which was Wisconsin's largest AmeriCorps grantee. MCSC's mission is to provide young adults with hands-on public work experience and educational opportunities. Currently, he is a member of the board of directors for the Milwaukee Public Schools Foundation. From 1990-1994, Joel worked for then-U.S. Senator Herb Kohl (WI) and was chief clerk of the U.S. senate's juvenile justice subcommittee. He is an alumnus of the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
