

ANGIE HATTON

Kentucky Public Service Commission

Angie Hatton was appointed to the Kentucky Public Service Commission (KPSC) and was designated vice chair by Governor Andy Beshear in March 2023. She was appointed chair in August 2024 and appointed to a second term, continuing as chair, in August 2025. Prior to joining the KPSC, Angie was in private law practice and also served three terms representing Letcher, Pike, and Harlan Counties in the Kentucky House of Representatives, during which time she also served as House minority whip. Much of her legislative work centered around energy and utility issues. She served on the Kentucky House standing committee on natural resources and was appointed by the speaker of the House to the Southern Legislators Conference committee on energy and environment. She currently serves on the board of directors for Organization of PJM States and the advisory board for the New Mexico State University Center for Public Utilities. With the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissions, she serves on multiple committees: energy resources and environment, international relations, and clean coal, for which she is chair. Angie received a degree in journalism from Eastern Kentucky University. After working as a newspaper reporter, she earned a JD from the University of Kentucky College of Law.
