

CHRIS AYERS

North Carolina Utilities Commission Public Staff

Christopher Ayers is the executive director of the North Carolina Utilities Commission Public Staff, a position he has held since 2013. The Public Staff represents the public in electric, gas, water, sewer, and transportation matters before the North Carolina Utilities Commission. Prior to joining the Public Staff, he practiced law in Raleigh, North Carolina, with the law firms of Poyner Spruill LLP and Hunton & Williams LLP. Chris serves on the National Association of State Utility Consumer Advocates (NASUCA) executive committee, the Consumer Advocates for the PJM States board of directors, the Electric Power Research Institute advisory council, the University of Missouri Financial Research Institute (FRI) advisory board, the Keystone Policy Center's Energy Board, and the New Mexico State University Center for Public Utilities advisory council. He also is a member of the board of directors of the North Carolina State Employees Credit Union (SECU) and the SECU Foundation. Chris's professional activities also include service as a member of the Critical Consumer Issues Forum executive committee, the Department of Energy's electricity advisory committee, the North Carolina 4-H Development Fund, and the North Carolina Environmental Management Commission. He received a bachelor's degree from Duke University and a JD from the University of North Carolina.